

MID ARGYLL ARTS ASSOCIATION

2021-2022 SEASON

4/9/21

Join us for a socially distanced performance with Claire Hammond, acclaimed as a pianist of "amazing power and panache" (The Telegraph),
Venue: Christ Church

22/23/10/21

A workshop by the Scottish Dance Theatre, Scotland's national contemporary dance company, known for producing excellent and daring work.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

12/3/22

Join us for another enchanting trio on clarinet, piano and cello - the Trio Ecossaise have performed together for over fifteen years.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

Booking

To book your place at our wonderful concerts go to:

<https://buytickets.at/midargyllartsassociation>

Get social with us!

<https://www.facebook.com/MidArgyllArtsAssociation>

18/9/21

Our very first Drive-In concert at the epic Kilmory Castle! Enjoy a Saxophone Quartet from the Royal Scottish Conservatoire.
Venue: Kilmory Castle

6/11/21

An afternoon of earthly delights by GAIA, featuring a violin and cello ensemble, Katrina Lee and Alice Allen.
Venue: Kilmory Castle

10/4/22

Get your stomp on with Ugly Bug Ragtime a funky and fabulous trio playing ragtime jazz.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

2/10/21

Enjoy a Parisian style evening with Les Trois Blondes - Scotland's only Bal Musette band playing classical Parisian cafe music.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

15/1/22

A fab performance by 'The Willow Trio', a clarsach trio playing their own compositions and arrangements of both classical and traditional music.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

TBC/5/22

Anna Fedorova, one of the world's premier young pianists, demonstrating an innate musical maturity and outstanding technical abilities.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall

18/2/22

Enjoy an evening with rising star, Ryan Corbett, classical accordionist in his final year of study at the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland.
Venue: Ardrishaig Hall